J. B. EATON.

Murdered for His Money.

Mr. Jesse Abney, of Owsley county, a timber man, was found dead on the road leading from Beattyville to his home, having been shot. General presumption is that he was murdered for his money, as he was known to have had considerable money on his person when he left Beattyville, and when found was penniless. Several arrests have been made by the authorities and it is believed that the guilty are under surveillance.

Since the above was set in type Clay Thomas a seventeen-year-old boy, has confessed the murder, but claims self defense. Other suspects arrested are released.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack McGlone returned here Monday from Clay City where they visited Mr. and Mrs. and E. B. McGlone. They will spend a few days here with relatives before returning to their home at Rooney. — Morehead Mountaineer.

Estill county will issue new bonds to liquidate the old railroad bond issue. They will be issued in $500.00 denominations and run from one to forty years.

Former Citizen Dead.

In a letter to relatives at this place, Mrs. Laura Pelsue, nee Oldham, advises of the sudden death of Henry Rose at St. Louis, Mo. Mr. Rose was formerly a resident of this county where he had many relatives and friends, he having at one time held the position of book-keeper for the Old Forge Co. at this place. Deceased moved to Centralia, a Kentucky town of Missouri, a number of years ago, where he leaves a wife and three sons to mourn his loss.

Doctor Sued for Heavy Damages.

Dr. H. M. Winburn, of Spout Spring, has been sued at Irvine for $7,500 damages by his nephew, Cleve Winburn. The contention of the plaintiff is that through improper treatment by the defendant it became necessary to amputate an arm, and therefore prays for damages as stated above. Cleve Winburn was shot in the arm several weeks ago, and called in his uncle to treat the wound with afore mentioned results.

Police Court Got Busy.

It is claimed that a lot of whiskey was imported in to Clay City Saturday night, and as a result there was a lot of drunks both Saturday night and Sunday attended by a number of street brawls in the west end of the city. As a sequel to the latter actions Judge Fletcher was kept busy in Police Court all day Monday, and imposed several small fines. The whiskey venders have not yet been apprehended.

Damages Settled.

The county has secured the right of way for the new steel bridge at Walters' Ferry on both sides of the river. George W. Wells gave the land on one side, and Curtis Bowman, who owns the land on the south side of the river ceded about one-fourth of an acre to the county for $100.00 cash. Besides for right of way, this amount of land is necessary to get dirt for the fill on the approach.

New Book-keeper.

Mr. Price Sewell, of Jackson, Ky., has accepted a position as book-keeper with the Brodhead-Garrett Co. of this place. Mr. Sewell comes well recommended and we welcome him and his family to our city.

Mrs. J. H. Eaton, of this place, is visiting relatives in Lexington and Ashland, Ky., and Mt. Carbon, W. Va. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Fitch, of Lexington, accompanying her to the last mentioned place.

J. E. Niblack, of Irvine, was in the city Tuesday and yesterday looking after some business matters. Mr. Niblack seems to be very well pleased in his new location.

"The Old World and Its Ways"

Col. William Jennings Bryan announces a new book of travel entitled "The Old World and Its Ways," which recounts his recent tour around the world and his journeys through Europe. It is profusely and elegantly illustrated with 240 artistic engravings representing men and things seen in the various countries of the earth during that noted journey. The engravings are made from photographs taken by him or his party specially for this publication. It is the monumental literary work of his life, and it is published under his special personal supervision. He has, by special contract with his publishers, made the retail prices low down with the view to putting it within the easy reach of every reader of books and every man or woman who thinks.

The book gives his experience—what he saw and did—whom he met and his impressions and conclusions. He made a profound study of men and things as he saw them in this noted journey around the world. He gives governmental, educational, religious and other conditions, from the standpoint of a student and one profoundly interested in the people of the earth, wherever distributed.

While Col. Bryan traveled as a private citizen he went with the prestige of having made two memorable contests for the Presidency of the United States, and he was everywhere recognized and entertained as a great representative American, having a leading part in the direction of American affairs. He was given opportunity for observation and for ascertaining facts and conditions never before accorded to any one traveling in private capacity.

If one wants to see the world, and the people who are at the head of affairs in all countries, as well as the masses, he has in this book an opportunity of seeing them through the eyes of Col. William Jennings Bryan. It is sold by subscription, and the Thompson Publishing Company of St. Louis, Mo., are the fortunate publishers. They offer an opportunity for solicitors in another column of this issue.

Last year Dalvay was started twice. At Brighton Beach July 26 he finished a good fourth after having been practically left at the post, and Aug. 13 at Saratoga broke down and has not since been trained. It will be noted that in his race at Harlem Sept. 9, 1904 Dalvay ran a mile in 1:39, defeating a number of the fastest horses in the West. He won, pulled up by two lengths and could unquestionably, have made better time had it been necessary. In all Dalvay won twelve races, was four times second, once third and four times unplaced. His winning totaled $9,290.

This most excellent horse will make the season of 1907 at the stable of Thos. Conlee one mile west of Stanton at the low service fee of $10 00.

This is an excellent opportunity for Powell county farmers to get the service of a thoroughbred horse. There is no better in the State.
